

Healthcare

Home to award-winning medical facilities including Virtua, Cooper Trauma Center, and Deborah Heart and Lung Center.

Just a short drive to world-class medical institutions such as Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and Wills Eye Hospital.

Additionally, access to renowned regional institutions like University of Pennsylvania Hospital, and Thomas Jefferson University Hospital.

Education

From top-rated public schools to vocational options, Burlington County caters to every learning style.

- 27 School districts.
- A county filled with top-rated schools.
- County Technical/Vocational School with two campuses.
- Rowan College of Burlington County offers affordable top-tier education close to home. High school students can earn college credits through dual enrollment programs.

Arts and Culture

Immerse yourself in a vibrant tapestry of art and culture.

- The Philadelphia Museum of Art (including works from Cézanne, Dalí, Matisse, Monet, Pollack, Picasso, Renoir, Van Gogh, and Warhol)
- The Barnes Foundation
- The Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts
- The Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts (home to The Pennsylvania Ballet, the Philadelphia Orchestra, and the Opera Company of Philadelphia)
- The Walnut Street Theatre
- The Franklin Institute
- The Academy of Natural Sciences
- The Rodin Museum
- Experience the intimate charm of local productions like the Moorestown Theater Company, the Burlington County Footlighters, and the Bridge Players Theatre Company.
- Visit local galleries like Perkins Center for the Arts, Lyceum Hall of Arts, and the Smithville Mansion

Parks & Recreation:

Unleash your inner explorer in 1,000 acres of diverse County parks, ranging from serene forests and sparkling lakes to sports fields and vibrant playgrounds. With plans to add 3,500 more acres in the future.

- A regional trail system linking parks throughout the County, like the Delaware River Heritage Trail that follows the Delaware River from Trenton to Palmyra.
- Equestrian trails.
- 40 municipalities in the county, each boasting their own park systems.
- Expansive hiking, camping, and fishing opportunities in the Pinelands, a unique ecological region that covers a significant portion of the county.
- Just a short drive from any municipality to the New Jersey Beaches.
- Less than 60 miles to the Pocono Mountains for skiing, snowboarding, and other winter sports. Hiking, fishing, and other outdoor activities during Spring, Summer and Fall.
- 17 golf courses within Burlington County, 174 throughout New Jersey.

Professional Sports

Experience the electrifying atmosphere of 16 professional sports teams right at your doorstep.

- 3 NFL teams – Philadelphia Eagles, New York Giants, New York Jets
- 4 NHL teams – Philadelphia Flyers, New Jersey Devils, New York Rangers, New York Islanders
- 3 MLB teams – Philadelphia Phillies, New York Yankees, New York Mets
- 3 NBA teams – Philadelphia 76ers, New York Knicks, Brooklyn Nets
- 3 MLS teams – Philadelphia Union, New York Red Bulls, New York City FC

Historical Significance

Journey through time in Burlington County, where hundreds of Revolutionary War sites and captivating historic gems, from colonial villages to Victorian mansions, whisper their stories.

For example:

- Arney's Mount Friends Meetinghouse and Burial Ground: Walk the same hallowed ground as Quaker colonists and discover their peaceful sanctuary.
- Atsion Village: Step into a 19th-century iron-bog town, preserved amidst a lush pinelands forest.
- Bordentown Historic District: Uncover the whispers of the past in this history-rich city that once housed esteemed residents like Thomas Paine, Joseph Bonaparte, Thomas Farnsworth, and Francis Hopkinson.
- Smithville Mansion and Conservatory: Explore the lavish estate of a prominent industrialist and wander through its enchanting glass conservatory.

